DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

(i) active ingredients: an agonist, an antagonist, a substance that binds to a ligand of a PTH receptor/PTHrP receptor to promote binding between the ligand and the receptor, and a substance that binds to a ligand of a PTH receptor/PTHrP receptor to inhibit binding between the ligand and the receptor.

(ii) diseases mediated by PTH or PTHrP: a syndrom associated with malignancy as listed in claims 5 and 23, secondary hyperparathyroidism, primary hyperparathyroidism, a central nervous system disease as listed in claim 8, a disease mediated by PTH- or PTHrP-cytokine cascade as listed in claim 11.

(iii) cytokines listed in claim 10.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species from (i), (ii), and (iii) to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

- (i) claim 1 reads on the active ingredients;
- (ii) claims 4-13, 18, and 19 read on the diseases mediated by PTH or PTHrP;
- (iii) claim 10 reads on the species of cytokines.

The following claim is generic: claim 1.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: each active ingredient or each cytokine is a distinct chemical entity and has a distinct structure from the others, and each disease has distinct pathological conditions.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48 (b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48 (b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17 (I).
